About PASS: PASS stands for Peers Assisting Student Success: Weekly group learning sessions for difficult courses, facilitated by a “PASS Leader” - a student who has completed the course in the past with an A or A+.

Job Description: The PASS Leader will conduct one PASS session per week, two hours in duration. At the PASS Session, the PASS Leader facilitates activities and discussions to enhance the learning skills of students by encouraging participation and active discussion in reviewing weekly course material and preparing for the upcoming exams. The PASS Leader will also be required, in two paid hours per week, to review the course materials and prepare/revise handouts in advance in order to conduct the PASS Session. The PASS Leader may also be required to attend occasional meetings (one hour duration) and/or to promote his/her PASS Sessions (e.g., by classroom visits).

The PASS leader is part of an exciting New College team of student leaders who are committed to sharing their skills and knowledge with fellow students to help them succeed.
